HAYDON'S CORRESPONDENCE and TABLE-TALK. WITH A MEMOIR BY HIS SON, And 33 Illustrations.

"Here we have a full-length portrait of a most remarkable man..... His son has done the work well—is clear and discriminating on the whole, and writes with ease and vigour..... Over and above the interest that must be felt in Haydon himself, the letters afford us the opportunity of studying closely many of the greatest men and women of the time..... We do not hesitate to say that these letters and table-talk form a most valuable contribution to the history of art and literature in the past generation. The editor has selected and arranged them with uncommon judgment, adding many notes that contain one and anecdote. Every page has thus its point of interest..... The book will no doubt have a wide audience, as it well deserves."—Nonconformist.

MR. SWINBURNE'S NEW POEM.

Crown 8vo, cloth extra, price 6s.

ERECHTHEUS.

By ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE.

"Matured thought and ripened power are brought to the task of re-creating old fables..... Our extracts, copious as they are, fail to convey an idea of the sustained strength and beauty of the entire work, which we are inclined to rank as Mr. Swinburne's masterpiece."—Athenæum.

"Mr. Swinburne has written nothing near so good as this since he wrote 'Atalanta in Calydon'..... It would be difficult, in our opinion, to find a nearer approach to the terse and weighty dialogue of the Sophoclean tragedy than Mr. Swinburne gives us in the dialogue of his play..... Exquisite sweetness and melody."—Spectator.

"A book of great though rather a ghastly sort of interest. Henri Sanson's reminiscences have a merit of their own, and certainly present a side of the criminal history of France for which we should vainly seek a parallel here, but which is something much above a mere chapter of horrors."—Graphic.

THE FIRST EDITION OF SHAKE- SPEARE, 1623.

An exact reproduction of the rare original, in reduced facsimile, by a photographic process. With an Introduction by J. O. HALLIWELL PHILLIPS, Esq.

"To Messrs. Chatto and Windus belongs the merit of having done more to facilitate the critical study of the text of our great dramatist than all the Shakespeare clubs and societies put together. A complete facsimile of the celebrated first folio edition of 1623 for half-a-guinea is at once a miracle of cheapness and enterprise. Being in a reduced form, the type is necessarily rather diminutive, but it is as distinct as in a genuine copy of the original, and will be found to be as useful and far more handy to the student than the latter."—Athenæum.

Large post 8vo, with 5 Coloured Plates and 4 Hundreds of Wood Engravings, facsimiled from Mr. Thackeray's Drawings, cloth gilt, 12s. 6d.

THACKERAYANA:

NOTES AND ANECDOTES.

Illustrated by a profusion of Sketches in Facsimile from the Originals

by WILLIAM MAKEPEACE THACKERAY.

Depicting humorous Incidents in his School-life, and favourite

Characters in the books of his everyday reading.

"Any one who would know the extraordinary fertility of Thackeray's genius in the way of comic pictorial art should look over the volume entitled 'Thackerayana.' Some of the sketches in this volume are so excellent as to create some wonder why Thackeray was not still more successful in the same walk. Thackeray saw a great deal of the world, and he seized the salient points of nationality with infinite dexterity and truth. Many of the sketches remind us of the strange pictorial puns with which Thomas Hood used to amuse the town in days when Thackeray was still quite young. But the author of 'Vanity Fair' had a more artistic sense than the admirable poet and humourist to whom we have alluded. As a draughtsman, he had more skill, more varied power, more grace, and a wider knowledge of character."—Daily News.

"The world would lose sight altogether of one important side of Thackeray's many-sided genius if it failed to study him as a draughtsman no less than as an essayist and novelist. And here in 'Thackerayana' is the very material from which to form the truest estimate of his powers. Thackeray, according to the rules of art, was but an indifferent sketcher. But in his own way, and as the illustrator of his own swift thoughts by a few pencil strokes hardly less swift, Thackeray was worth a dozen better draughtsmen—and it is some of this work of his we get here; little marginal comments on his own or others' writings—each the embodiment in grotesque outline of some bit of criticism and humour. The letterpress, too—the running comments on Thackeray's life-history, the extracts that gave birth to the illustrations—often as rare as the sketches themselves—is very cleverly put together."—Graphic.

SOUTHERN STATES & NORTH AMERICA:

An ILLUSTRATED RECORD of an extensive TOUR of OBSERVATION during the YEARS 1873-4, through what were formerly the Slave States of North America.

By EDWARD KING,

With Maps and 536 Engravings on Wood from original sketches, by J. WELLS CHAMPNEY.

"It would not now be possible to find in any book published in England wood engravings of the same minuteness, precision, and beauty as are here seen on every page."—Saturday Review.

"Grave and gay are mingled throughout the volume with admirable skill.... It is idle to attempt even to give an idea of the contents of this book, with its eight hundred closely printed pages, and its striking illustrations nearly as numerous. If you want facts, political or commercial, or bright sketches of social life, or graphic descriptions of nature in the Southern States, you cannot do better than go to this work for them."—Spectator.

"An illustrated volume of travels of very unusual excellence..... Mr. King's sketches are quite the revelation of a new world."—Graphic.

"This charming volume..... It is difficult to know whether to give the palm to the writer or the artist, whose joint labour has produced this volume, but each has done his work excellently well."—World.

"So beautiful a book of travel and of the incidents of such way-faring and sojourning in America has never hitherto been published. There is probably no book existing on the same subject that affords so much amusement and adds so much to previous knowledge as this."—Notes and Queries.

"All who desire to be fully acquainted with the present condition of the Southern States could nowhere else find an authority so exhaustive, descriptive, and reliable."—Anglo-American Times.

In 2 vols. large 4to, splendidly illustrated, cloth extra, gilt edges, 42s.

TRAVELS IN SOUTH AMERICA,

FROM THE PACIFIC TO THE ATLANTIC OCEAN.

By PAUL MARCOY.

Illustrated by Five Hundred and Twenty-five Engravings on Wood, of which Fifty-four are full page (measuring 9½ by 6½ inches), and Ten Maps, from drawings by the Author.

"M. Marcoy sketches nearly everything which he describes, and gives us hundreds of pictures of the life, manners, and scenery which come under his eye. Such a book is a treat which the English reader does not often get..... If the British public will not believe that there is more sound instruction in such a work as this than in a geographic manual, and more amusement than in a novel, we can only say, let him alone."—Times.

"M. Marcoy is one of the most entertaining of travellers. Anything more vivid and amusing than his descriptions of life and manners could not easily be found."—Spectator.

"Never has there been given to the world such a picture of South America."—Standard.

"M. Marcoy's splendid record of a recent journey from the Pacific to the Atlantic, through the whole breadth of Peru and Brazil, is a work which must be seen in order to be appreciated..... The result of his ardent and philosophical pursuit of knowledge and adventure is to enrich our literature with a mass of matter imperfectly, if at all, accessible heretofore, embodied, too, in a form suited in a peculiar degree to attract and even fascinate every reader who is susceptible of the impressions of art."—Saturday Review.

"More is to be learned about South America from a perusal of these pages and a study of these illustrations than from an examination of the library richest in books of travel."—Daily News.

THE UNIVERSE; or, The Infinitely Great and Infinitely Little. By F. A. POUCHET, M.D. Illustrated by 272 Engravings on Wood and a Frontispiece in Colours. New and Cheaper Edition. Medium 8vo, cloth extra, gilt edges, 12s. 6d.

"We can honestly commend this work, which is as admirably as it is copiously illustrated."—Times.

"It would be difficult to hit upon a more attractive volume."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"This volume will prove a capital present to young persons."—Athenaeum.

"A good pioneer to more exact studies. We have no doubt it will find what it deserves—popularity among English readers."—Saturday Review.

"We know of no more attractive book for a beginner, or one more likely to excite to further study of natural science. It is as instructive as a school book, and as interesting as Robinson Crusoe."—Land and Water.

"Scarcely any book in French or English is so likely to stimulate in the young an interest in the physical phenomena."—Fortnightly Review.

A TRIP TO MUSIC-LAND: a Fairy Tale, forming an Allegorical and Pictorial Exposition of the Elements of Music. By EMMA L. SHEDLOCK. Illustrated by Twenty Full-page Pictures of a highly amusing character, from Designs by J. King James. Post 4to, cloth extra, gilt edges, 10s. 6d.

"One of the most original and ingenious books of the season. 'A Trip to Music-Land' is an attempt, and a very successful one, to give the bitter pill of musical instruction with the attraction of a fairy tale. Mr. James has greatly aided the accomplished authoress by making her explanations additionally attractive by his humorous and original illustrations."—Daily Telegraph.

"This book will be warmly welcomed by all lovers and teachers of music."—Standard.

"We have read the book with true enjoyment. The illustrations are clever in conception, and the book is simply delightful."—Nonconformist.

"Miss Shedlock's charming book, with its admirable illustrations."—Figaro.

"The tale is very cleverly told."—Guardian.

"A great novelty, and written in a clever and amusing style. It cannot be praised too much."—Court Journal.

HOW TO SELECT AN OFFICE for LIFE ASSURANCE.

Extract from Board of Trade's Report, July 2, 1874.

"Taking Insurance business as it exists in this country, the Public cannot be misled if, when seeking an Office in which to effect an Insurance, they select one which transacts its business at a small percentage of working cost, and does not anticipate its profits."

THESE TESTS ARE ENTIRELY FULFILLED BY THE ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY, the Report itself showing that of all the English Provincial Offices and all the Scotch Offices, the Royal's Ratio of Expenses to its Premium Income is the Lowest, and the Company have never anticipated a Single Shilling of Profit.

Extract from "The Times" of July 24, 1874.

"On the whole, it would be safe for the Father of a Family, contemplating the Insurance of his Life, to select one of the Offices with a Large Life Fund, a Small Expenditure on Management, and a Rate of Interest ranging from 4·2 to 4·5 per cent."

"THE ROYAL"

ENTIRELY MEETS THE WHOLE OF THESE REQUIREMENTS.

Its Life Fund is close upon Two Millions Sterling; its Expenses are Lower than those of any other English Provincial Office, and of any Scotch Office; and its rate of Interest is 4·4 per cent.

LIFE FUNDS	£1,761,523
GENERAL RESERVE	£594,434
PAID-UP CAPITAL	£289,545

"We have examined and counted every Security, and have found all correct and in perfect order, and that the present aggregate market value is in excess of the amounts in the Balance-sheet."—From Auditors' Report, July 17, 1874.

"As evidence of the care exercised in the Investment of the Life Funds, it may be mentioned that they have never been reduced a single penny by bad or doubtful securities."—From Chairman's Speech at Annual Meeting, August 7, 1874.
